

LA FOLLETTE IS HERE TO NIGHT

Speaks at the Opera House
at 8 Eight O'clock, on State Issues.

GUEST OF MAYOR

He Is Accompanied by His Wife, Clerk Rogers

SPOONER IS COMING

Governor Robert M. LaFollette, Governor of the state of Wisconsin and candidate for re-election on the republican ticket, accompanied by his wife and Chief Executive Clerk Alfred Rogers, with an escort of three newspaper men, arrived in Janesville this afternoon at five minutes past five. They were met at the St. Paul depot by an informal committee of the governor's friends who escorted him to the waiting carriage that took him to the home of Mayor Victor Richardson, whose guest he will be while in the city.

Spoke in Stoughton. The governor and his party left Madison at nine twenty this morning and at ten the governor spoke to a gathering at Stoughton. He left there on the afternoon train arriving here over the St. Paul road. After greeting his friends at the depot he was driven to Mayor Richardson's, where he and his wife and Mr. Rogers will dine quietly with the mayor's family. At eight he will be escorted to the Opera house by a delegation of his friends led by the Imperial band.

The Governor's Visit Governor LaFollette comes to this city on the same date as the one assigned to Mr. McVicker one of the campaign spellbinders that the republican central committee is sending out. Mr. McVicker's speech having been transferred to some other locality to make room for the Governor. He was invited to speak here by the men who worked so hard for his re-nomination before the convention and these gentlemen have had the entire meeting in charge. The expenses will be met by them from a fund raised from the nominees for the county officers and by employees of the state who reside here.

Who Will Preside? The committee in charge of the convention have asked the Hon. M. G. Jeffris to preside at the meeting and introduce the governor. Mr. Jeffris has said that he will do this if he is in the city. Checks for reserved seats on the stage are being handed out by the members of the committee who have the affair in charge and otherwise the reserved chairs in the parquette of the house will be used.

Governor's Speech The committee in charge of the meeting say that the Governor will deliver an entirely new address tonight that will touch upon state issues of especial interest to the residents of this vicinity. From indications they hope for a large attendance. After the speech the Governor will informally meet his friends on the stage of the opera house. The whole affair will be entirely informal.

Spooner's Speech Senator Spooner began his series of speeches this evening in Milwaukee and on Tuesday, October 21, will deliver an address at the Opera House under the auspices of the Rock county republican committee. Arrangements are now being made by Chairman Nolan and others for this event.

HALF MILLION IN GOLD
SENT EAST UNDER GUARD

Five Trained Fighters Accompany Shipment of Precious Metal to Intimidate Robbers.

Omaha, Neb., Oct. 13.—Heavily guarded by five men, whose fighting qualities are well known, half a million dollars in gold bars were sent through Omaha, destined for New York.

The gold shipment came from the famous Homestake gold mine in the Black Hills and went by express over the Burlington railroad. The desperate robbery of Friday night on the same line, where the company lost $50,000, worked on the nerves of the officials to such an extent that extra guards were placed on this train. The interior of the express car resembled an arsenal. The guards were provided with Winchesters, shot guns, and pistols and were prepared to give cut-laws a warm reception.

These gold shipments are made semi-monthly, but seldom run as high as the amount now en route.

No Work At Tamaqua Tamaqua, Pa., Oct. 13.—Although

HELPFUL SERVICES HELD BY GIDEONS

Enthusiastic Members of the Order
Take Charge of Sunday's Many Meetings.

Stormy weather had a material influence on the attendance at the various Sunday services held under the auspices of the Gideons and small congregations were quite the rule at all of the churches.

For the Gideons, the day opened at 8:30 o'clock in the morning with a preparatory service of prayer, praise and testimony held at the First M. E. church under the leadership of L. Williams, of Chicago. It was a veritable love feast and was greatly enjoyed by those who participated in it.

Gideons in Pulpits
At the 10:30 o'clock morning service the pulpits of the five churches, which lent their endorsement to the Gideon movement by joining with them in all of their services were filled by Gideons who took entire charge of the service. The same plan was followed in each church there being one principal speaker, his associates assisting with the prayers and reading of the Scripture. The speakers were all excellent ones and congregations in the various churches listened to some splendid, practical addresses which were largely charged with Gideonism.

The Speakers
The following are the gentlemen who officiated in the churches, the principal speaker being named first: Congregational—Frank A. Garlick, Chicago; J. M. Critton and J. W. Cass, Madison. Baptist—L. Williams, Jas. Payne, W. H. Teetzel, Chicago; C. W. Gays, Harvard, Court Street M. E.—R. Adams, Madison; S. J. Lea, Elgin; H. S. Hall, Appleton; A. H. Haines, Ohio; M. T. Allum, Iowa. Presbyterian—Charles H. Palmer and Nels Rylanders, Chicago; D. A. Lewis, Baraboo. First M. E.—Robert Clark, Indianapolis; W. S. Bowen, Chicago; S. E. Hill, Beloit.

Women's Service
At three o'clock in the afternoon a women's mass meeting was held in the Court Street M. E. church. It was a helpful service and was led by Mrs. L. Williams, of Chicago, assisted by Mrs. Frank Garlick, of Chicago, who offered prayer and Mrs. S. J. Lea, of Elgin, who gave the Bible reading. Mrs. Williams spoke feelingly of the large responsibilities resting on women and of their privilege in being an influential power for good. She emphasized the efficiency of prayer and urged the women to help the gideons by remembering them in prayer. A short session of testimony followed.

Men's Mass Meeting
Immunity from the contagious enthusiasm which pervaded the mass meeting for men in the afternoon would have been impossible. The Y. M. C. A. building had been chosen as the meeting place, and promptly at 3:00 the moderator, W. S. Bowen, called the meeting to order with a laudatory reference to the fondness of drummers for trains that started on time.

After a brief, but hearty song service, led by D. A. Lewis, of Baraboo, in which the men were urged to make twice as much noise as usual, because only half of the expected number were present, a quartette composed of J. C. Kline, E. E. Van Pool, H. E. Cary and A. Crawford rendered a devotional selection. Rev. Vaughan then led in an earnest supplication for divine blessing upon the meeting, and the singing was continued.

Scripture From Romans
With another of the happy remarks which characterized his introductions Mr. Bowen called on "Brother Sam" Lea of Elgin, "because he seems to know the Bible by heart" to read a passage of Scripture. Mr. Lea responded with the twelfth chapter of Romans. Although he carried his Testament in his hand, he did not once refer to it, but repeated the verses from memory, laying special stress upon "Be not slothful in business, fervent in spirit, serving the Lord" as one of the best precepts for a Gideon.

J. H. Nicholson, or "Nick" as the moderator referred to him, and F. A. Garlick then again invoked God's guidance in the meeting, and after another number by the quartette the meeting was thrown open for short testimony. After hearty responses from about a dozen, both Gideons, and their local friends, an address was given by Charles H. Palmer of Chicago. His theme was that of victory and a conquering organization. Mr. Palmer closed his talk, as the other Gideons invariably did, with an appeal to accept Christ.

Closed With Prayer
W. S. Bowen wound up the session with a short call upon the men to be prompt in attending to their religious affairs, and then asked Mr. Lewis to close the meeting with a prayer.

Young Peoples' Meeting
A. C. Mielenz, of Milwaukee, one of the ablest men in the organization led the union service of the Christian Endeavor societies and Epworth Leagues, held at the Presbyterian church at 5:30 o'clock. The topic of the meeting was: "Fruitful or Fruitless," and two types of lives were represented by passages of Scripture, W. H. Teetzel of Chicago, reading the 15th chapter of John relating to the vine and branches and Mr. Mielenz read the story of the barren fig tree.

Personal Plea
Mr. Mielenz also made an eloquent talk on the subject, emphasizing the point that abiding faith is the condition of fruitfulness. He made a personal appeal to the young people to become Christians, consecrating their lives fully to Christ's service. Many inspiring testimonies were given by those present.

Some Interesting Cases.

Case No. 2—In July 1899, I treated a minister who had been afflicted with a constant headache and pain in the stomach due to chronic gastritis. He had suffered for months. He took fifteen treatments and has

Case No. 3—I was called to see a prominent business man last April. I found him suffering from severe pains in the stomach and very weak from almost constant vomiting for forty-eight hours, which the M. D.'s could not relieve. There was no change in her condition at the end of the first three months. At the end of twelve months she had gained twenty-five pounds and was discharged entirely cured.

Case No. 5—A lady, over 60 years old had been troubled with constipation for many years. Her bowels did not act without the daily use of purgatives. She tried osteopathy in January, 1899, and after two months' treatment she had no trouble with her bowels, and has better health at present than she has had for many years.

Case No. 6—In January 1899, a man with a paralyzed arm came to me for treatment. He was not able to move a muscle of the shoulder, arm, or hand. After five months' treatment he took up the pick and shovel and worked on the section of the Big Four railroad.

Case No. 7—A young lady suffered constantly from asthma for eight months. During the month of September she took eight osteopathic treatments which gave her permanent relief.

WAR ON GAME LAWS

Wisconsin Game Protective Association
Protests Against Misrepresentation for Political Purposes.

The Wisconsin Game Protective association, an organization of hunters and advocates for the protection of game, passed a resolution at its last meeting, held Wednesday night at Gerhard's hall, as an answer to the false and misleading statements made by newspapers and campaign speakers in regard to the game laws and their execution:

"Whereas, Certain persons for political purposes in campaign speeches are trying to make the people believe that the taxpayers of the state have to pay a big sum for the protection of game and

"Whereas, These persons make a dangerous war on our sensible and practicable game laws and officers who are enforcing the same, for which laws we and every friend of the protection of game have worked hard for many years, and

"Whereas, Said persons when elected will revoke our game laws and abolish the complete extermination of game and fish in Wisconsin within two or three years, and

"Whereas, The statement that the said taxpayers of the Wisconsin have to pay for the protection of game, or for the game warden, is absolutely untrue, as the hunters alone of this state and others pay for the protection of game, fish and forest, as provided in section 29, chapter 312, of the laws of 1899, and which laws were presented by the hunters of Wisconsin, who willingly and gladly pay their small license fee, for they know it is paid to protect the game; therefore be it

"Resolved, That we, the Wisconsin Game Protective association, an organization of thorough hunters and true sportsmen, organized in 1899 for the protection of game, protect energetically and emphatically against such false, absurd, misleading and dangerous statements, made by politicians to further their selfish purpose and for political effect; further

"Resolved, That we, as hunters and friends of the protection of game, know and declare the system of protection of game in the state of Wisconsin is one of the best in the United States, and, with a few amendments which we hope will be made by our next legislature, will serve as a model game and fish law; and further

"Resolved, That we believe that the game and fish law were never before better protected than at present; now, therefore, be it

"Resolved, That we urge and request all hunters and friends for protection of game, fish and forest to act at once against such demagogues or their false, misleading statements."

"All such money as received shall be set aside by the state treasurer and shall constitute a fund for the payment of the special deputy game wardens. The liability of the state for per diem salaries and expenses of deputy game wardens appointed under this act or otherwise and for all other services and expenses incurred for an purpose under or in consequence of this act, shall be limited to the license fees paid in pursuance of this act, and in no event shall the state pay any such salaries or expenses or be liable in any manner therefore, except to the extent of such license fees received by under this act, any contract, express or implied, of the game warden to the contrary notwithstanding. And said game warden shall not issue any voucher, nor shall the governor approve any voucher if issued by said warden under the provisions of this act or otherwise for any such per diem salary, services or other expenses of any kind, unless the money to pay such voucher received for licenses under this act shall at the time be on hand to pay the same."

Mr. Plambeck, the secretary of the Wisconsin Game Protective association, said yesterday: "I can't understand how a man can make such false statements. The taxpayers not only don't pay one cent for the game warden, but the taxpayers receive a large sum every year from or through the game wardens, as all the fines go into the county treasury. I know of one case in Hurley where the wardens arrested seven deer hunters from Michigan this spring. They were fined $50 each. Iron county received from that one arrest $350, and the county has not yet paid one cent for the game wardens."

"As the license money must be spent for the protection of game (it is only paid to the state treasurer to keep a record of it) it is the duty of the state game warden and the governor to appoint as many deputies as the license fund allows to pay for the same. Not one cent from the state's treasury or the taxpayers' money was spent or can be spent for salary of game wardens, and if I am right informed there is a surplus of $10,000 now in the fund from last year."

"That we have a larger or better force of deputies than ever before is due to the fact that the governor cut down the salary of the wardens from $3.50 to $2.50, which amounts to a large sum during the year, and to the fact that the wardens enforce the law and ask every hunter for his license, so that over 60,000 hunters have taken out licenses the last year, where in former years only 30,000 had been taken out; the other hunters taking their chances."

"I think we have the best system in the United States for the protection of game. That our laws are good and enforced is shown by the fact that our game is increasing very fast. Every good citizen should assist the officers in enforcing the laws, especially a game warden. He is one of the poorest paid officers and has a dangerous and thankless job."

HURRY UP!

Everywhere one hears that expression "hurry up!" It is a genuine Americanism expressive of the "rush" in which we live. Nothing is swift enough for us. We race against steam and lightning and find them slow. We grudge the time given to eating, and rush through meals as though life depended upon our haste.

Life does depend on our haste, but not in that sense. Look at the obituary columns of the papers and see how many prominent men are carried away by "stomach trouble," "acute indigestion" and other related diseases. Their lives have in general been sacrificed to the haste and rush of business which overlooked the fact that food can only nourish the body when digested and assimilated and that the digestive and assimilative processes can't be hurried.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, cures diseases of the stomach and the associated organs of digestion and nutrition. The source of all physical strength is food properly digested and perfectly assimilated. By enabling the perfect digestion and assimilation of food "Golden Medical Discovery" increases and enriches the blood supply and sends new strength to every organ of the body.

"I was at one time as I thought almost at death's door," writes Mr. J. S. Bell, of Leaside, Van Buren Co., Iowa. "I was confined to my house and part of the time to my bed. I had taken quantities of medicines but they only seemed to feed the disease. But I must say that 'Golden Medical Discovery' has cured me, and to-day I am stouter than I have been for twenty years. I am now forty-three years old."

OF INTEREST TO FARMERS

Ever since its organization, the National Live Stock Association has been working hard to secure the adoption of some law providing for gathering vital statistics on the live stock industry in the United States. While the improvement in the last census has been the only tangible result seen by the public, yet considerable progress has been made towards the end aimed at. The establishment of the census office as a regular department of the government was the first step and this was warmly backed by the association. The next step is to secure a bureau of live stock statistics in that department.

At the request of the association, Congressman Hopkins, Chairman of the House Census Committee, introduced an amendment to the census act, providing for "A classified enumeration and value of live stock," which shall be made under such rules and regulations as the director of the department may deem best. This was introduced so late that it was impossible to secure a report on the amendment at last session, but it will be vigorously pushed during the coming session. The measure has the endorsement of the Department of Agriculture as well as the census department, and there is strong hope that it will be possible to start the bureau in time for another general census in 1905. There can be no question of the necessity of reliable statistics regarding live stock in this country. Next to the bread supply, the meat supply of the country is of most importance, and every year demonstrates the need of statistics that can be depended upon. The census of 1900 was good as far as it went, but with no figures with which to compare, that census is practically useless until another is taken. To secure a reliable basis upon which a bureau of statistics could work, there should be three complete census made of the live stock in conservative years and after that every five years. If this was done, a bureau could very easily keep close estimate of the changes taking place and such estimates would be of the greatest value to trade and commerce as well as to the farmers and stock raisers. For instance, this season there has been a wholesale slaughter of female cattle, and in addition thousands of heifers have been speyed. It is possible that this very act may result in a scarcity of breeding cattle shortly. At present almost nothing is known in regard to the supply and demand of meat cattle. The country might be on the verge of a shortage which would send meat prices far beyond the top figures of this year, and no one could say such a shortage exists until it was actually here. The markets are completely controlled by the visible supply actually on the market from day to day and farmers may be selling their stock at panic prices when the actual conditions do not justify those prices.

If the government finds it profitable to collect statistics on the grain crops of the country, cotton and manufacturers, there can be no valid or logical argument against collecting statistics on the meat supply. One is as important as the other and statistics are fully as necessary for the proper conduct of trade and commerce.

More than eight million farmers and stock raisers are interested in this measure. They represent $5,000,000,000 of invested capital, and besides being a protection for the producer and consumer against the speculator, a law of this kind is due this great army of agriculturists and should be enacted.

COLLEGE ATHLETICS

A feeling of satisfaction must be felt by the parents whose daughters are in attendance at the Northwestern University at Evanston, when they realize that the girls are practicing the manly art of climbing fire escapes, shinning down ropes from the top of high buildings, and various other feats of daring, so necessary to a finished education. One of the Chicago papers recently contained the following notice:

"Climbing a five-story fire escape and creeping fifty feet along the cornice of Willard hall at a dizzy height from the ground, three co-eds of Northwestern university tore down the flaming banner of a rival class yesterday morning. Another daring coed a few hours later mounted to the roof of Sheridan cottage, and, when her means of descent were removed, slid thirty feet down a rope, provided by her confederates, to safety."

The cause of the acrobatic performance was close rivalry. It now remains for the opposition to outdo the climbers, and the public may be prepared for almost any kind of a sensation. It is gratifying to know that the field of college athletics has been enlarged and that the girls are now permitted to take a hand. It is also a pleasure to note that the fair sex will not be required to come in competition with the boys either on the diamond or the gridiron. Their efforts will be confined to aerial performances. This is very proper, and will contribute largely to the equipment of the girl graduates.

Climbing fire escapes and scaling dizzy ledges is a little dangerous, however, and the university will find it advisable to equip the campus with telegraph poles so that the co-eds can gratify their ambition without danger to life and limb. The new diploma will refer to this new department, and when it is known that Mary is a good climber, and Jane a good trapeze artist the value of a college education will be more thoroughly appreciated. Surely "the world do move."

ANOTHER VIEW OF IT
If all advertising paid, it would resolve itself in putting so much money in and taking so much money out. The newspapers would all do a land office business, and everybody would then be happy. That advertising pays that is properly written, judiciously placed, and which offers some sort of a reasonable equivalent for one's money. In the broad, big field of advertising competition is most active. Not everyone who competes wins. Here, as everywhere else, it is the diligent man, possessed of honesty, good judgment and pluck who captures the prize. Advertising is a splendid modern opportunity, but it does not promise a capital prize for every one. A prize comes to him who deserves it by use of proper means.—National Advertiser.

Advertising don't sell goods. It simply attracts people, and if properly handled brings prospective customers. The simple announcement that John Smith has the best stock of dry goods in town, is not advertising, and yet thousands of dollars are wasted every year in just such sort of announcements. The advertisement that says something, backed by the goods and reinforced by good salesmen and courteous attention, never fails to win. Judicious, intelligent advertising pays and especially when money is plenty as it is today. You may do business without it, but vastly more can be accomplished by its aid.

Why object to Speaker Henderson's resignation? He may yet prove his ability to serve the American public in other ways that are quite as beneficial. Speaker Reed's resignation was at first considered a national calamity, but we soon learned that what politics lost the people gained through Mr. Reed's great literary production, "Modern Eloquence." In which says Secretary Hay, "Mr. Reed gained the same eminence as editor as he enjoyed as orator." It is up to Henderson to show what he can do.

The people of Wisconsin have the satisfaction of knowing that if they can't get coal this winter, that there is no tax on ice, and there won't be any trouble in keeping warm next summer. There's always pleasure in anticipation.

In the light of new discoveries, the coal strike will soon cease to be a menace. When the peat beds get busy at Whitewater, and the wood crop begins to move, coal will cease to be a necessity.

The governor explains the mystery about the school scandal, but the atmosphere is so full of fog that the situation is not so clear as it might be to ordinary vision.

Senator Allison of Iowa is giving the people of Iowa some good advice. The senator belongs to the class of old time republicans and is noted for conservative hard common sense.

With 150 democratic orators, and half as many game wardens turned loose in the state, life is a continued round of pleasure, whether at home or abroad.

A full house, and an attentive audience will greet the governor at the opera house tonight. It remains for him to do the rest.

No trouble to keep warm without coal. Buy a brick soak it in oil and be happy.

Neenah Times: It is about time Mayor Rose sprung some of those good things he has asserted he has been keeping in his sleeve for the opening of the republican campaign. That same old speech is getting dreadful monotonous.

Neenah News: The Oshkosh Times political reporter interviewed four farmers from the town of Vinland who asserted that they could not confederence, of course, is that they are going to vote for Jim Brown for confederence snake. Help! Police!

Milwaukee Wisconsin: Government ownership would be a great thing for politicians. But what would it be for the people? This a question for the people to seriously reflect upon before they fly to government ownership as a refuge from temporary ills.

Milwaukee Journal: With the every old college man scents the advent of the bracing October air, football battle in the air and almost wishes he could enjoy again that broken leg and cracked ribs he sustained in making a touchdown which saved the day for the old varsity.

Chicago Chronicle: It goes without saying that the gentlemen who have formed the lead combine did not do so with an idea of advancing prices. Their only purpose in getting together is to play ping pong on Saturday nights and have a sociable time.

La Crosse Republican and Leader: A steam harvester, weighing 100 tons, that cuts, threshes and bags the grain from 100 acres of land a day, is reported at work in California on a 4,000 acre barley field. There are reasons why we feed the world.

Chicago Record-Herald: Howard Gould wife's carriage builder has sued her because she has refused to accept a vehicle made according to her order. This lady has now been sued by her dressmaker, her shoemaker, her corset maker and her carriage builder. Thus far her chiroplast and her wigmaker seem to have given fair satisfaction.

Green Bay Gazette: If the political pledges given by the republican state conventions this year are redeemed two years from now there will be but one republican candidate for president. Roosevelt now has a lead that in all probability no one will attempt to overcome.

Marquette Eagle: It would be a can have strong arguments this year, and the orators find it is easy to enthrone their audiences. The national honor has been maintained by the republican party. Peace and prosperity are here to stay. In city, county, state and nation, the voters will keep the republicans in control.

Marquette Eagle: It would be a ridiculous waste of talent for La Follette to enter a joint debate with Rose. Two years ago at the Marquette Chatauqua assembly proved that he can't debate. His oratorical efforts find expression in ruffianism, and not in argument. The samples of his oratorical ability that he is giving nightly throughout the state confirm this.

Fond du Lac Commonwealth: Colonel William Jennings Bryan has sprung a surprise on an unsuspecting public by finding something in the Roosevelt administration which he could indorse, the president's efforts to end the coal strike having met with approval. The shock is a trifle severe but the public will have to stand it.

TO HAVE THEIR OWN ORCHESTRA

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS FAVOR SUPT. BUELL'S PLAN.

MUSICIANS WILL ORGANIZE

Definite Plans Have Not Been Made, But Twenty Students Are Ready for Practice.

After several years without an orchestra, the high school is again planning to perfect an organization which will be able to provide instrumental music at the different entertainments of the school. Friday evening of last week Supt. Buell called a meeting of those who were interested in the formation of an orchestra, and since that time several have expressed their willingness to join such an organization.

Two Clubs in One
No definite plans have been made regarding the nature or size of the musical association. Mrs. Hyde, who will lead and drill the musicians who enter, suggested that it might take the form of an orchestra and mandolin club which could play together, but so arranged that the mandolin and guitar section could be separated if necessary and form a complete club by itself.

Many Members Secured
Over twenty have already handed in their names as ready to begin practice at once, and the first meeting will probably be held this week. At that time it will be possible to determine definitely what can be done.

WHAT PEOPLE ARE DOING

Societies Attention: The Gazette is glad to publish notices of club and society meetings, providing they are written out in the office by ten o'clock of the day they are to appear in the paper. It is difficult to take messages over the telephone and no attention will be sent in by telephone unless paid for by those sent in by telephone.

In Justice Court: In Justice Reeder's court this morning the case of Chas. Melke vs. Charles Carlson was held over until five o'clock this afternoon. According to the complaint Carlson owes the plaintiff $2.50, and he appears to be willing to pay it but forgets to bring around the money at the required time. The case was called for Saturday, and was then adjourned until this morning with the hope that the matter would be settled. If he does not settle this afternoon judgment will probably be taken.

PRESS COMMENT.

St. Louis Democrat: This is the last year a few coal conspirators will grip 80,000,000 Americans by the throat and charge them five or ten times as much for fuel as it is really worth.

Philadelphia North American: The obduracy of the operators, the refusal to consult the public interest, and their impudent assumption of divine authority for their acts—these are the things which have brought them face to face with a growing demand that their power be ended.

The average value of boots and shoes exported from this country in 1900 was $1.50 a pair. If that represents the average factory value of these goods consumed at home, then there were turned out from the factories that year 170,000,000 pairs of boots and shoes, or two and a quarter pairs for every man, woman and child of the nation.—Mablin's Magazine.

Minneapolis Times: In swiping a few sophomores and one or two freshmen with a rope the president of Lawrence University, in the usually quiet state of Wisconsin, was well within his rights. If the battle has been rightly reported in the public press, if there is no club handy a few feet of rope will advance the cause of higher education as well as anything in cases like the one in which said president figured.

Madison Democrat: "Spooner to the rescue!" Is the cheering word heard along the republican front. The eloquent senator is sort of a life-saving service to his party. Every time the storm howls through the rigging and the old party keel bumps on the land and the helmsman loses his head the cry is "Spooner! Spooner!" He promptly gets out the life lines and steers the old barnacle hulk into smooth water again.

Eau Claire Leader: The long protracted strike among the miners is causing people to hunt diligently for substitutes for coal. A few years ago peat beds were discovered in Gates county, and now several hundred acres have been found in Douglas county of a superior quality. It is well known that northern Wisconsin contains many large peat beds, and it looks as though the time has come for bringing them into use.

Milwaukee News: For nearly a quarter of a century, both the national and the state governments have sought to "regulate" the railways. And what has been accomplished? Nothing, absolutely nothing. What hope is there of effective regulation in the future? The power of organized wealth is increasing. And in the same proportion that the power of wealth increases, the power of the people decreases. There is one remedy, and only one remedy, from the abuses that have developed from the turning over of the public highways to be operated for private profit—government ownership.

WOMANS BRANCH OF THE Y. M. C. A.

ELECTED OFFICERS AT ANNUAL MEETING SATURDAY.

PLAN FOR ENTERTAINMENTS

Will Hold a District School Entertainment the Last of November.

On Saturday afternoon the annual meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. was held in the parlors of the association building. Considerable business of importance was transacted and the annual reports of the officers showed that the past year had been a profitable and prosperous one.

In the annual election of officers, the efficiency of those who served last year was recognized and with the exception of the second vice president, the old officers were re-elected. Those who will serve this year are Mrs. A. A. Jackson, president; Mrs. J. T. Henderson, first vice president; Mrs. Archie Crawford, second vice president; Miss Elizabeth Palmer, secretary; Mrs. Henry Hanson, treasurer.

The work of the coming year was entered upon heartily and plans will be made for a busy season. The ladies voted to serve the supper for the social club of the Y. M. C. A. which will hold meetings once a month during the winter. It was also voted to give a "District School" entertainment on Friday evening, Nov. 28. It will be given under the direction of Prof. Kelly, of Morrison, Ill., and a meeting of the committee which has it in charge will be held at the association building this evening at 8 o'clock.

UNION SERVICE THANKSGIVING DAY

Churches Will Combine in an Evening Service on That Day.

This year the Thanksgiving union service of the churches may be held in the evening. The pastors of the Baptist, First and Court Street Methodist, Congregational, and Presbyterian churches met in the parlors of the Y. M. C. A. building this morning to decide on the plans for the observance of that day which is set apart for services of praise and thanksgiving.

Evening Free From Cares

Rev. Henderson was fixed upon as the clergyman to deliver the Thanksgiving address, and by regular order of rotation, the First Methodist church will be the place of holding the meeting. The question was then proposed of holding the meeting in the evening, instead of in the morning as usual. The argument advanced was that at present the cares of preparing the Thanksgiving feast prevent the attendance of many housewives, who would be glad to go if they were not hindered by their household duties.

Has Worked Successfully

In Stevens Point the innovation was introduced four years ago, and a decided increase in the number in attendance has resulted. No decision was reached in the conference this morning and the matter will lie to a great extent in the hands of Rev. Henderson, as he is the speaker of the day and his wish could be respected in the matter.

Sunday Rest
At the same meeting, the subject was opened of giving up an evening to a union service to listen to an address on the Sunday Rest association, at some date after the Baraboo conference. The night which the speaker wished was Thursday, and it was decided inadvisable to give up the regular mid-week meeting.

Health Park
The pastors also discussed granting an evening to Dr. Roberts to present the cause of the "health park" idea in which he is interested. It was finally decided that Tuesday, October 21, should be set aside for that purpose and that the place of the meeting should be the Congregational church.

Rocky Soil of New Hampshire.
A Maine man writing from the West to his home paper describing his trip across the continent, has this to say: "When traversing the granite hills of New Hampshire I got the idea that nature had stuck them in there about as thickly as it was possible to do, and that the job had been rather poorly finished by strewn a little sand in between, to make the valleys. To a man used to the soil we have in the Aristocrat, it is a puzzle how people get a living in such places."

Paderewski's Wealth.
Paderewski, the celebrated pianist, is an excellent man of business. All the money he earns by his profession, and it is said to exceed $100,000 a year, is invested to the best advantage. He is said to be a shareholder in a well-known piano firm as well as part proprietor in one of the chief hotels in Warsaw. Paderewski has been heard to say that he has never had a single serious financial loss during the time he has conducted his own investments.

Same Old Whisky Bill.
Wine producers have never hesitated to utilize all that physics, chemistry and biology can do for them; champagne is frozen and wines are pasteurized and, if need be, sugared or plastered. The manufacturer of whisky stands still, and distillers, exercising any improved method with the epithet "doctor," view with mistrust any technique other than the one adopted by their forefathers.—Lancet.

REPUBLICANS ARE GRATEFUL

Appreciate the Courtesy Shown by Trinity Church

W. A. Jackson, secretary of the Rock county republican committee desires to express publicly in behalf of the committee and of the republicans of the county, their deep appreciation of the courtesy shown them by Trinity church. The church society had the Myers Grand engaged for the kindness for a three nights' engagement, beginning, Oct. 21. The 21st was the only night on which Senator John C. Spooner could visit Janesville and the opera house was the only suitable place for his address. In order that the people of Rock county might not be disappointed in hearing the distinguished senator, the church society voted to surrender their date in favor of the county committee. It is suggested by Mr. Jackson that republicans will have an opportunity of showing their gratitude materially by patronizing the kindness on the following two evenings, Oct. 22 and 23.

SUPPER GUESTS ARE SURPRISED

ARE UNEXPECTED WITNESSES OF WEDDING CEREMONY

AT THE HOME OF C. D. CAPELLE

On Saturday evening in this city there occurred a wedding, the announcement of which will cause general surprise as the interested parties had been unusually successful in keeping their plans to themselves. The contracting parties were Mrs. Janet Lynts and George J. Davis, both well-known residents of this city.

The wedding took place at the home of the bride's daughter, Mrs. C. D. Capelle, 271 Prospect avenue. When Mr. and Mrs. Capelle invited a small company of relatives and friends to take supper with them on Saturday evening, none of the guests suspected the pleasant surprise in store for them, or the fact that in that surprise lay the real design of the invitation.

Premature knowledge of their plans was also avoided by the manner in which the groom secured his license. His visit to County Clerk Starr was made at 5 o'clock on Saturday afternoon, just before the office closed, and as soon as the license was secured Mr. Davis went to Judge J. W. Sale and procured a special permit to marry within the five-day limit required by law.

At 6:30 o'clock when the guests had assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Capelle, Mrs. Lynts and Mr. Davis stepped in front of the company and were united in marriage by the Rev. Robert C. Denton, pastor of the Congregational church.

The parlors were beautifully decorated with autumn leaves and choice cut flowers and after the ceremony and the hearty congratulations which followed it, an elegant wedding supper was served by Mrs. Capelle.

Both bride and groom have a wide acquaintance in this city where they have resided for many years. Mr. Davis retired from active business several years ago. He and his wife have gone to housekeeping at his home, 159 South Main street, and many friends will join in wishing them happiness and prosperity.

INTERNAL FIGHT RENTS RANKS

Strikers in the Pas de Calais District Refuse to Take Up Question of Eight-Hour Day, Declaring They Desire Increased Wages.

Charleroi, Belgium, Oct. 13.—The national committee of miners of four of the great Belgian coal fields met and passed resolutions in favor of demanding an increase of 15 per cent in the wages of coal miners, the object being to create a diversion in favor of the striking coal miners in France and to prevent the supplying of Belgian coal to France. This may lead to a big strike in Belgium.

MAY RIOT AT FUNERAL

Socialists Threaten to Carry Red Flags in France.

Paris, Oct. 13.—It now appears that only one man was killed during the encounter at the Terre Noire coal field Oct. 10 between strikers and gendarmes and that the victim was not connected with the strike. Nevertheless, the miners' committee has issued a manifesto denouncing the killing as murder and attacking the government for utilizing gendarmes and soldiers against the strikers. The funeral of the Terre Noire victim may lead to trouble, as the strikers intend to make a demonstration. The socialists declare they will carry red flags, which is prohibited.

Strikers Disagree

The principal feature in the strike situation is the division which is forming in the ranks of the strikers. Those of the Pas de Calais district and the department du Nord, who are the most numerous, decline to bring the questions of an eight-hour day and old-age pensions into the strike, as the central committee of the federation of miners decided to do, and declare they are striking purely for an increase in wages. The local committees of the miners in these districts asked the prefects to intervene with the mine owners with a view of securing a settlement. The central committee thereupon issued a manifesto calling the Pas de Calais and Nord committees to obedience.

Swiss Strike is a Failure

Geneva, Oct. 13.—The general strike has collapsed, the strikers' syndicate having called on all trades to resume work. The striking employees of the street car line, in sympathy with whom the other trades were called out, have resumed work.

PEARY IS TO BE OPERATED ON

Treatment Made Necessary by Injuries Received in the North.

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 13.—Commodore Robert E. Peary, the arctic explorer, is in this city to undergo treatment for his feet, which were injured in the far north. It may be necessary to have an operation performed. Dr. W. W. Keen will attend him and the explorer will have apartments in his private hospital. Although the extent of Commander Peary's injuries are not known, it is said that they were due to having his feet frozen four years ago, soon after he started upon his last expedition. Commander Peary upon his return home was advised by his surgeon that an operation should be performed.

Cocktails and Not Drugs

BRITISH INDUSTRIAL CONFLICT

London Sociologist Predicts War Between Labor and Capital.

Boston, Mass., Oct. 13.—John A. Hobson, the London sociologist, prophesies a serious conflict soon in England between organized labor and organized capital. He says:

"The trade unions object to the employment of nonunion men in order to protect their organizations."

"The employers of England are about to try to break down the labor unions and to break down the principle of collective bargaining. They have turned to the two weapons of law and politics. The house of lords has decided that unions can be sued. This will pave the way for needless litigation, in which, because of weaker resources, the unions may be ruined. In the meantime, as trade declines, we will see a series of big strikes and lockouts."

CALUMET CANAL PLAN IS DEAD

Indiana Legislature Not to Revive Bill Killed Last Year.

La Porte, Ind., Oct. 13.—Semi-official announcement is made that no attempt will be made at the coming session of the state legislature to pass the Calumet canal bill, which was defeated after a hard fight a year ago between its promoters and a railroad lobby. The scheme was to construct a canal from Lake Michigan, near East Chicago, to the Calumet river, near Hammond. This would open an immense tract of lands for factory sites. The legislature, however, refused to authorize a special assessment of taxpayers of Lake county to construct it. The principal objection of the railroads was that they would have had to expend millions in erecting and maintaining drawbridges.

WITH THE ATHLETES

Officers have been chosen for the re-organized Milwaukee Athletic club, and the club house is being renovated. "Base ball champions of Northern Wisconsin" is the term applied by the Green Bay salivators to themselves.

Milwaukee bowlers have approached dangerously near the world's records, and the finger ball artists in that city expect to win some honors in the record line at an early date.

Vanderboom, the Marinette high school man, is developing into one of the fastest and hardest players on the Madison football team.

Max Fleischer of Chicago died a few days ago as the result of a kick in the head received six years ago in a football game when he was fifteen years old.

Beloit used only three substitutes in the game with Minnesota Saturday in comparison with seven by Minnesota.

Coach Sanford, former coach of Columbia university, attributed Chicago's success against Purdue to deception as the basis of offense and does not believe that it will avail against a fast team.

One of Evansville's tackles played through almost the entire game Saturday against the local team in a dazed condition resulting from an injury in the first of the game. He recovered soon after the game was over.

Some persons believe that the reason Coach King is playing Juneau as half with the Badgers is because a better end has been secured, and not because the back field is weak.

RETURN TO WORK AT NEW ORLEANS

GREAT REJOICING IN THE CITY

Men Had Been Out for Two Weeks and Successfully Prevented the Traction Company From Carrying Passengers on Its Vehicles.

New Orleans, La., Oct. 13.—After effectually blocking traffic on all city lines for two weeks, the striking employees of the street car companies decided to return to work, under the ultimatum submitted by the Governor. The basis of settlement is that the men will go back to work at 20 cents and ten hours, with a minimum of seven and a half hours a day, no discrimination to be made against any of the men under charges, and as many to be taken back as are needed for the operation of the company's lines. The hitch was on the taking back of the men under charges, but the railway company finally conceded this, allowing the courts to decide on the guilt of the men.

Increase Militia Forces.
Two more companies of militia arrived, one from Monroe and another from Mansfield. A company of cavalry came down from Mansfield and was mustered into the state service soon after its arrival. It had just been organized and volunteered its services.

There is widespread rejoicing in the city over the settlement of the strike. It began Sunday morning two weeks ago, and has been effective. Not a single passenger has been carried on a car since it began, and no passenger car has got more than five blocks from the barn.

Effigies in Plenty.
The people awoke to find in different parts of the city stuffed figures hanging to telephone and telegraph poles, with all sorts of inscriptions on them. Some represented the Governor, some the mayor, and there were many representing officials of the railway companies.

The credit for the settlement is largely due to W. S. Parkinson, who took up the cause of the strikers and labored indefatigably, convincing them that they could hope for nothing better and that they could not prevail against the militia sent here. United States Senator Foster, Governor Heard and Mayor Capdeville were all instrumental in some degree in bringing about the final result.

They did not return and their boat was found on the shore about half a mile from the city. Later a boat was found which has been identified as Corbett's. It is believed that the boys lost control of the boat in the heavy sea and that it capsized. It is presumed that their bodies were washed out into Lake Michigan, as dragging of the bay has brought no trace of them.

MORGAN SAID TO HAVE ACTED

SETTLEMENT RUMORS RIFE

Belief Prevails in the Metropolis That the Strike Is at an End and the Great Magnate Has Bowled to Roosevelt's Will.

New York, Oct. 13.—President Baer of the Reading was summoned to New York late last night and left Reading, Pa., in a special train just before midnight. It is supposed that J. P. Morgan, who has been in conference all day with three men, whose identities are unknown, summoned Mr. Baer, and that the Reading president will pick up other operators on the way.

New Yorkers believe the strike is near its end, and that Mr. Morgan, acting on the request of President Roosevelt, which was delivered to Mr. Morgan by Secretary Root on Saturday, has called upon the coal operators to meet him to-day and aid him in ending the strike.

Operators Obey Call.
Mr. Baer as he left Reading was asked as to the object of the summons to New York and answered: "You know as much as I do."

President Baer arrived in Philadelphia at 1:15 this morning. There were two cars on the train and it was rumored that other operators were with the Reading's president.

Around the Waldorf-Astoria half a dozen men, among the excited financiers, had heard that the strike was settled. John Lambert of Chicago said he had been informed by a man prominent in affairs from New England that the strike had been settled. Mr. Lambert's information was in keeping with what others had also heard, but the news was not traceable to any one authoritative source.

Settlement Rumors

Congressman Babcock, chairman of the Republican congressional campaign committee, was there talking with James Kerr, former congressman and secretary of the house. Mr. Kerr is a coal operator. Mr. Babcock said he had heard that the strike was settled, but he received his information in an indefinite way. Mr. Kerr said he did not believe the strike was settled.

There were many others around the hotel eagerly inquiring for the news. There were many Wall street speculators and operators who were anxiously waiting to hear the latest developments and who intended to operate in the London market against the market opening.

Strange Visitors

J. P. Morgan's yacht, Corsair, lay at anchor in the North river, off Thirty-fifth street all day. Mr. Morgan went on board early in the morning and remained all day. Three men were said to be in conference with him from early in the afternoon till after 10 o'clock at night. At 9 o'clock at night a launch was sent to the Erie ferry with a baggage check and returned to the Corsair a little later with a satchel. At 10:15 o'clock two men came ashore and entered a cab that had been waiting for them for over an hour. The men were questioned, but took no notice. They hurried into the cab without giving any direction, and the driver whipped up his horse. A block away he leaned over to find out where his passengers wanted to go.

No Change

President Truesdale of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad was away from his house at Greenwich, Conn., all day and up to a late hour he could not be reached by telephone.

John Markle reiterated that no settlement was in sight and there could be no settlement except by the miners going to work independently. "The situation is unchanged," he said, "except that conditions are improving in the coal regions."

always indicate a weak heart. They are usually preceded or followed by palpitation or fluttering, and there may be pain in left side, a smothering sensation and shortness of breath. Such a heart should be treated at once, before the disease develops beyond control. Heart disease is as easily cured as other troubles if taken in time.

"I was subject to fainting spells, and many times I have fallen on the street. I was often compelled to sit down while walking to avoid falling. When physicians failed to help me, I took Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and was completely cured."

NEW CHINESE MINISTER.

Sir Liang Chen Tung is no stranger to American ways.

Sir Liang Chen Tung, whom the emperor of China has selected to succeed the popular Wu Ting Fang, is no stranger to America, having spent several years here as a student at Amherst college and other educational institutions.

Sir Liang is a man of fine educational attainments and belongs to one of the oldest families in China, which means a great deal in that country.

Until recently Sir Liang, who is now thirty-nine years of age, was the tutor of Prince Ching, the prime minister of China. Sir Liang is a widower, his wife having died about a year ago. It is not believed that he will bring his children to this country for the present, it being the policy of the higher class Chinese to have their children well grounded in the Chinese idea before opening to their knowledge the broader idea of western civilization.

Sir Liang was one of a large number of young Chinamen who were sent by the Celestial government to the United States in 1872 to study American methods and laws. He studied at Phillips academy, Andover, and later entered Amherst, but before graduating was recalled to China.

At the time it was said that the boys were getting too much Americanism. He had absorbed many western ideas in the meantime, however, and took them back to the Celestial empire.

Sir Liang's appointment is due, it is said, to his knowledge of the United States and his education on the lines which have made Wu Ting Fang such a valuable representative of China in the United States. He is fond of society and, it is expected, will do a great deal of entertaining in Washington. It is stated that he will assume his duties about the first of the year.

Sir Liang was sent to England as the special envoy of the emperor of China to King Edward's coronation.

PENNSYLVANIA'S SPONSOR.

How Miss Quay Came to Be Chosen to Christen New Battleship.

Miss Susan Quay, daughter of Senator M. S. Quay, who has been chosen to christen the new battleship Pennsylvania, is a popular member of the official circle at Washington.

Miss Quay owes her selection for the honor to the friendship existing between her father and Mr. Edwin S. Cramp, the builder. While it is customary for the governor to designate the sponsor of a ship named for the state over which he presides, the choice really rests with the builder.

Miss Susan Quay is a most attractive girl, bright and vivacious, and is prominent in the younger set in senatorial circles. Senator Quay's home on K street is the center of life for the Pennsylvania young people who live in Washington in the winter, and Miss Susan Quay is an accomplished young hostess.

Earth's Need of Mankind.

Every earthly scene is imperfect, as Eden was without man's presence. Hill and tree and clouds, waves on the seashore, willows by the river's side, fields with their broad green beauty stretching out of sight, lack with all their loveliness one element of poetry, gain it only when a human frame stands in their midst, and the signs of human work are seen among them.—Phillips, Brooks.

Refused University Degree.

It is declared by a man who claims to have direct information that Harvard university twice offered an honorary degree to Archbishop Williams, who on both occasions courteously asked to be excused from accepting the honor. Some years ago Grover Cleveland took a similar course on being offered an honorary degree by Harvard.
